Class of 1994 Plans its 10-Year Reunion in St. Pete

By Christian Reiss '94

Looking out of the office window over the Hudson, the weather is downright grim – in fact it has been cold and rainy for almost a year. I remember Bangkok as always being hot, and the sun generally always being around. If it did rain, it would be a downright water-dunking experience, a half-hearted drizzle simply did not suffice. I suppose global warming, oversized SUV's, TiVo's, and Segways come at a price. It will soon be 10 years since I graduated from high school. In some sense it feels like a lifetime has gone by, while at the same time memories of ISB still feel very close. Perhaps like the character Leonard Shelby, played by Guy Pierce in the original motion picture Memento, I am no longer able to form memories that vivid, or maybe I'm experiencing plain old nostalgia, or maybe I was just trying to compare myself to Guy Pierce – I know you ladies like him.

I run into people from ISB quite often in New York City, not all from '94 but ISB nonetheless. It is always good to see how far people have come and to listen to their stories. Even those underclassmen or those JIS/ISM/ISKL people – whom in the past you questioned your association with -- for the most part appear to have turned out far better than Vinny D. from Hoboken, NJ. Don't get me wrong; I like Hoboken, in fact I am planning to go out there tonight, and I think Vinny D. is fun to hang out with, but Vinny D. hasn't gone through the unique experience of growing up in Southeast Asia. He hasn't fought through traffic, attended pep rallies, watched IASAS sports, or tasted the cafeteria food. Does anyone remember those chits?

Brian Helmick '94 and Christian Reiss '94 at Junno's Lounge in Manhattan. They already reserved their convertibles for the reunion in Florida next year.

The reunion in St. Petersburg, Florida, is going to be a great time. If the message board is any indication, the class of 1994 is going to have a substantial representation:

"Will round up the UK-based 94'ers and hop across the pond for some Florida sunshine!!"

"Gee . . . looks like if I don't go, I'll be missing a heck of a party and a chance to meet up with old friends, too! Making my plans."

The following people have all indicated that they're going: Miko Chung, Shannon Megica, Joon Yup Lee, Sonja Huber, Hae-Ryn Chung, Danny Jhangiani, Angela Lierly, Young-Ae Chu, Enisha Narula, John Donaldson, Chinda Wongngamnit, Carlos Martin, Patricia Ascot, and many more.

I am not sure that we had much class spirit back in high school, but I suppose it is never too late. Actually, it's almost frustrating that we have to wait another year for this, but this will give everyone ample time to get his/her act together. I'll see you all at the 2004 reunion, and we'll all really catch up then.

Christian Reiss works at an investment bank in New York; he works in Foreign Exchange where he does option pricing/modeling. He graduated from U Penn in 1998.

Hats Off to Keith Hatton!

Our heartfelt thanks from the Board

Keith at the Long Beach reunion in 1998

Keith readily accepted the role as a Board member. His exact words were: "Sure I'll do it, is there anything else I can do?"

Keith's senior picture in the 1970 Erawan

It is with great sadness that we say good-bye to Keith Hatton '70 as a long-standing member of the ISB Network Board of Directors. During the past 10 years, his talents, time and skills have brought the Network into a new age. His knowledge of technology kept the Network moving forward. The improvements he made to our newsletter made reading it a pleasure. He helped to streamline the database and made it accessible for the rest of the board.

In late 1993 David Wilkerson had a lead on how to contact Keith, and wanted to talk to him about an idea he and John Dammon had been tossing around about reuniting some former Teen Club band members and possibly getting them to play at a reunion or two.

Soon after locating Keith, he and John got together and began jamming. Soon Terry Rogers and Kevin Farenholtz were contacted and all four, along with Babette Trout-Dammon and Keith's wife Peggy, started getting together on the weekends playing music and rehearsing.

During that time John and David (both already on the Board) had a discussion about offering Keith the newsletter editor job since he had a fully functioning printing press that he used for his church newsletter. Keith readily accepted the role as a Board member. His exact words were: "Sure I'll do it, is there anything else I can do?"

Over the next several years Keith produced a much-improved newsletter, often at his own expense. He was always available to help out with anything that needed to be done, even, occasionally helping Babette and John with database updates and mailings of postcards, newsletters and mailing lists.

"Keith is a team player. He was a blessing for so many reasons and in my mind his only fault was he just did not know how to say NO," said David Wilkerson. "If you needed help with anything, anything at all, he would immediately step up and help. There is no telling how much of his personal money was used to produce the newsletter, postcards and mailing list. If we were low on money, and that was up until the 1998 Long Beach reunion, he would produce the newsletter at his own expense. I know the Board will miss his contributions greatly."

At the '94 Clearwater reunion John, Keith, Terry, Kevin, Babette and Peggy did their first Teen Club band performance. They provided the Saturday night entertainment at their own personal expense buying and renting instruments and sound gear, and transporting them to Florida so they could perform. Keith and the band were asked to perform again at the 1996 Dallas reunion. Again, at their own expense, they entertained us to the wee hours of the morning.

In 1998 John and Babette Trout-Dammon, along with Lynn Barringer, stepped down as long time Board members and Keith took over two roles that were being vacated; Treasurer and helping to transition Van Bucher as the then newly appointed newsletter editor.

In 1999 when the newsletter editor job became vacant, Keith once again pitched in doing double duty as newsletter editor and with database responsibilities for formatting the mailing list.

At the 2000 Williamsburg reunion Keith, along with the other band members and Mike Jepsen, performed again. This time the Board insisted that they receive payment but Keith declined to be paid as he felt it was a conflict of interest.

The ISB Network Alumni Association – A Brief History

By Marsha McCoskrie '69

The following article is part of the presentation Marsha made at ISB to honor Jane Panamaneechot, this year's recipient of the ISB Network Cares Scholarship on April 4, 2003. (See accompanying story on page 4.)

The ISB Alumni Network Association started before the days of the Internet, instant messaging, e-mails and cell phones – when friends could only find each other by sending letters and making expensive long distance calls all over the world. Staying in touch was hard work back then. After our years at ISB, most of us went back to our home countries and found that we just couldn't recreate the camaraderie or the fun we had here in Thailand – there was something really special about the friendships we made here.

Remembering the parties we used to throw at our houses, or at little noodle shops down the back soi's in Bangkok, during the 1970s and 80s, our friends started digging through their address books, finding their old friends, inviting people to their homes or organizing Thai dinners – a few alumni at a time. We got to know each other again and it was like we never left.

Because Bangkok is so far away from many alumni, not everyone was as lucky as I was to attend the 50th ISB Reunion in Bangkok, so we had "spiritual reunions."

From those little backyard barbecues and mini-reunions at Thai restaurants all around the world, the ISB Network started to come together, one address and one phone number at a time. It took about 10 years for a few, very dedicated alumni, working with the ISB Alumni office, to find over 5,000 of our classmates – and we really celebrate when we find another one of our old friends that we were afraid we'd 'lost'.

In 2000, ISB generously granted the Network the honor of being the official U.S. 'sister' ISB Alumni Association, honoring all those volunteers who, over the past 18 years gave their time, energy, and love to building a true alumni Network – growing it from a few phone numbers to a bi-annual gathering of hundreds.

And we invite you to keep your contact information active in the network database. Both the school and the ISB Network Alumni Associations have websites. Stay in touch – the friends you make in school may be some of the best you'll ever have.

Marsha McCoskrie delivers her remarks at ISB

It took about 10 years for a few, very dedicated alumni, working with the ISB Alumni office, to find over 5,000 of our classmates – and we really celebrate when we find another one of our old friends that we were afraid we'd 'lost'.

Keith Hatton

The database manager job was open again in 2000. Once again Keith stepped up to the plate, and jumped in managing the database, assisting with the newsletter and mailing list, and acting as the treasurer. This was a major undertaking due to technical problems we had at the time. We had three database files with thousands of alumni contacts and no one knew which file came first, the chicken or the egg!

In 2001 Glenn Connolly took over as the database manager and also took on the responsibility of the Network webmaster.

In 2002 David Wilkerson, with Keith's assistance, took over the database and started the painful task of merging ISB's database with the Network's. This generated some 7,000 records, with hundreds of duplicates and defunct information. Without Keith's help we could not have pulled this off.

Keith has been a strong member on our Board and we will miss his wise advice, kind words and logical mind. He will of course remain an active member of the Network.

"Keith is a team player. He was a blessing for so many reasons and in my mind his only fault was he just did not know how to say NO."

ISB Network Cares Scholarship Awarded to Jane Panamaneechot, Class of 2003

By Marsha McCoskrie '69

Jane Panamaneechot reacts with surprise as Marsha McCoskrie '69 and Freda Williams present her with the ISB Network Cares Scholarship.

Because of ISB and the warm, friendly Thai people that remain in our hearts and minds, members of the ISB Network Alumni Association elected to dedicate a portion of the annual association dues to establish a scholarship fund, the ISB Network Cares Scholarship. The Network members decided that criteria would include being a Thai National or of Thai descent and be a deserving student as judged by teachers and counselors. On April 4, 2003, at the Songkhran and International Day Assembly, Jane Panamaneechot, an ISB student since 2nd grade, was awarded the ISB Network Cares Scholarship by ISB Class of 1969 Alumna, Marsha McCoskrie, a Bangkok resident from 1963-67 and from 1999 to present.

The ISB Network Alumni Association asked Alumni Office Director, Freda Williams, to request that ISB teachers and high school counselors select a graduating senior to receive the scholarship. They knew they had a challenge, says Dr. Jeffrey Harper, high school counselor. They drew up a list of ISB seniors who met that scholarship's criteria. They had to make a choice among a number of unique individuals, each with qualities that shined. In 2003, graduating senior, Jane Panamaneechot met the basic criteria and had qualities that, in this interviewer/writer's views, particularly reflect the future and an answer to 'the times'.

After speaking with Jane and with Mr. Roger Williams and Dr. Harper, Jane's 7th grade teacher and her high school counselor, respectively, it was obvious that key factors in Jane's successes were parents who listened to her ideas and interests and participated in her activities, challenging teachers, and her own determination.

Jane claims that she started to get serious about school in 6th grade, when math was her most difficult subject. Says Jane, "At first I thought math was just memorization and boring abstractions that didn't apply to life, but when my 6th grade teacher asked us to think about how it could be applied, I started asking questions after class." One day when Jane was confused and frustrated, Jane's teacher made the most of that encounter by explaining the underlying concepts "so I could do the problems on my own."

Jane figured out how to do HTML programming and build web sites on her own. While in high school, Jane also worked with her friends and fellow-students to raise money to buy internet appliances for nearby Thai high schools – and to give tutorials and teach those students how to use the internet and to develop an internet forum. This forum "gives students a chance to develop critical thinking skills, to discuss world issues, politics, war, or music, and to post comments on a message board."

One of the things Jane values about her education at ISB is the focus on critical thinking and teachers who teach by questioning to get students to think. When teachers show their own depth of interest and knowledge, when they make students feel comfortable to ask questions, and when they answer student's questions by asking challenging questions back, it causes thinking that extends out from the classroom discussions on underlying concepts to her informal time "hanging around with friends."

The ISB Network wishes Jane all the best wherever life takes her.

Join the ISB Network Board of Directors!

The position of Special Events Planner is open and waiting for the right person to fill it (4-year term minimum).

Special Events Planner

The Special Events Planner provides support in overseeing all of the Special Event activities that occur during our bi-annual reunions. Here is a list of the typical areas that the Special Events Planner is responsible for:

1. Oversee all Audio/Visual requirements.
2. Determine what multimedia presentations should occur at the various functions.
3. Coordinate entertainment.
4. Handle arrangements for taking of Class Photos.
5. Oversee the House Games.
6. Coordinate any off-site functions (e.g., Thursday evening Thai dinner).

If you are interested in this position, please contact Maile McCoskrie Lindley (mailebusby@msn.com) or Kris Stahlman (kstahlman@earthlink.net) for more information.

2003 Membership Directory on its Way!

As most of you are aware, the Network is looking for ways to reduce spending and at the same time do more with our funds (web development, keeping reunion costs down, scholarship funds, etc.). We rely completely on your $40 bi-annual membership fee to do all of this while at the same time providing you with 6 newsletters, 2 membership directories, and 1 memorable reunion over the 2-year period.

Now Available on CD-Rom!

With a very positive response from many of our members, we began mailing out our newsletter electronically this past March to nearly all of our members that have an e-mail account. Another decision we have made to help keep the ISB Network financially sound is to put the mailing directory on CD-Rom, which greatly reduces the printing and postage fees of this very lengthy document. The CDs are being mailed out around the same time you are reading this newsletter.

If it turns out that you don't have a computer, or your computer doesn't have a CD-Rom drive, or you still prefer to receive a printed copy of the directory, please let Maile know and she will arrange to have it mailed out to you. You can either send her an e-mail at mailebusby@msn.com or call her at (949) 673-4632.

The Board thanks you for your support and hopes you accept this new format as it greatly reduces our operating costs.

NW ISB Alumni Thai Dinner March 22, 2003

Twenty-four alumni and family members attended a mini-reunion Thai Dinner organized by Maureen Lockhart Salahshoor, ISBN Webmaster & 1975 Class rep.

Bob Gleason '62, whom we discovered was our most senior alum hopped a ferry boat having traveled from his home in Hood Canal, WA. Since it was not far from the ferry terminal, Bob took advantage of a rainless day in Seattle and walked to the restaurant. He greeted several alumni who arrived early and met up in the bar of the Typhoon Thai Restaurant in downtown Seattle, many recognizing each other from the 2000 Bangkok and 2002 Phoenix reunions.

At these dinners you never know where conversation will lead. That evening Maureen found that two alumni, Kathy Wicks Rohner '70 and David O'Leary, husband of Kathy Kuehn '68 both worked for Allstate, where Maureen works today. Small world.

Bonnie Geilfuss Avery and Kathy Kuehn O'Leary, best friends at ISB (class of '68) told us they had just reunited in December 2002 after 35 years. Decades did not stand in the way of this friendship or memories—and they shared many stories that evening.

Jim Hansen '65 from Roseburg, Oregon, happened to read about the NW Alumni Thai Dinner in the ISBN Newsletter that was published prior to the dinner. Suddenly finding himself in Seattle that day for his 15-year-old son Zach's swim meet, he called Maureen at the last minute to see if they could attend. Of course they were added to the list of diners—prompting Maureen to bring her two teens to keep Zach company.

A surprise to Gary Kokensparger '69 was when Charles Webb '70 showed up and reminded Gary that they had participated in Tai Kwon Do together at ISB.

Alumni from Oregon and Washington enjoyed a delicious dinner of Chicken Satay & Peanut Sauce, Vegetarian Spring Rolls, Phad Thai Chicken, Typhoon Fried Rice – Pork, Panang Red Curry – Chicken, Buddha's Feast – Vegetarian, Drunken Noodles – Vegetable, Coconut Ice Cream. Of course Singha was the beverage of choice!

“What is most gratifying about these local dinners,” says Maureen, “is that it renews connections between ISB alumni. Many who gathered that evening are now considering attending the 2004 ISBN reunion—because now they feel they will be joining friends in St. Pete's Beach, Florida.”

Maureen plans to organize another dinner in early fall. Northwest alumni, or alumni who may find themselves in Seattle in September, look for information from her about a month prior. If you don't believe you are on her e-mail distribution list, you may contact her at mo\_sal@comcast.net or msalf@allstate.com.
